A

AEI
Up on air freight, Feb., p. 62

ASARCO
Transportation's modern-day Socrates, Jan., p. 31

AST&T WINNING PAPER
Inland routing: the critical link in international trade, Aug., p. 58

AIR CARGO
Shippers have nothing to fear, Jan., p. 10
Change and the customer, Feb., p. 10
Up on air freight, Feb., p. 62
Final round for US/Japan air battle, March, p. 31
Twilight zone for the CAB, April, p. 11
Return trip to total cost, May, p. 12
Memo to you, June, p. 23
Deregulation and reregulation, Aug., p. 18
FTZs becoming less foreign to international shippers, Sept., p. 20
New man at Pan Am, Oct., p. 20
Air forwarders flying in different directions, Nov., p. 19
New ICAO rules for dangerous goods, Nov., p. 20
Oh, that forum again, Dec., p. 22

AMERICAN WAREHOUSEMEN's ASSOCIATION
Warehouse productivity, Feb., p. 68

B

BARGE INDUSTRY
Waterways: caught in the currents of change, May, p. 62

BERG, JOE
Up on air freight, Feb., p. 62

BETZ, JOHN
Nothing a little business won't cure, Aug., p. 41

BOX Q
Break bulk containers, Jan., p. 27
Freight liability, claims, Feb., p. 23
F.O.B., shipping shock sensitive equipment, April, p. 79
Export Guide, freight claims, substitute service, May, p. 97
Bill of lading, Aug., p. 79
Legal questions, Oct., p. 14
Returned cargo tariff, Nov., p. 80

C

CCPAC
Stake your claim, Aug., p. 48

CSX Corp.
Staggers Act railroading: the 20th century unlimited, April, p. 31

CAMPBELL, GENE
Nothing a little business won't cure, Aug., p. 41

CAREERS
Tennessee detour: the road to success, May, p. 86
Distribution on careers, 1982, Nov., p. 67

CHARTERING
Import/export: case in point, Sept., p. 78

CLAIMS
Stake your claims, Aug., p. 48

COMPUTERS
Adventures in computerland, Jan., p. 43
Guide to computer systems, services, hardware & software, Feb., p. 39; March, p. 63; April, p. 50; May, p. 74; June, p. 67
How you can plug into URCS, March, p. 52
Distribution's movers clamor for computerized help, Aug., p. 36
Moving toward global electronic export system, Oct., p. 111
For people who hate computers, Dec., p. 29

CONSOLIDATED FREIGHTWAYS
Motor Carriage: A bright future, but only for big truckers, Jan., p. 48

CONSULTANTS
Those (damn/dear) consultants, part 1, Aug., p. 52; part 2, Sept., p. 46; part 3, Nov., p. 59

CUMMINS ENGINE CO.
How Cummins Engine revs up export control overseas, Oct., p. 128

D

DAMAGED DELIVERIES
Dec., p. 39

DER, W. JEROME
A well-taylored discussion, part 1, May, p. 43

DEREGULATION
What LTL shippers really want, June, p. 49

DIALOGUE
Subsidies: no more free lunch, Jan., p. 7

Trying to pinpoint a fact you know you read somewhere during the last year? Clip and save our subject index and you'll never have to give up on a lost fact which DISTRIBUTION magazine provided.

1982 EDITORIAL INDEX

A

AEI
Up on air freight, Feb., p. 62

ASARCO
Transportation's modern-day Socrates, Jan., p. 31

AST&T WINNING PAPER
Inland routing: the critical link in international trade, Aug., p. 58

AIR CARGO
Shippers have nothing to fear, Jan., p. 10
Change and the customer, Feb., p. 10
Up on air freight, Feb., p. 62
Final round for US/Japan air battle, March, p. 31
Twilight zone for the CAB, April, p. 11
Return trip to total cost, May, p. 12
Memo to you, June, p. 23
Deregulation and reregulation, Aug., p. 18
FTZs becoming less foreign to international shippers, Sept., p. 20
New man at Pan Am, Oct., p. 20
Air forwarders flying in different directions, Nov., p. 19
New ICAO rules for dangerous goods, Nov., p. 20
Oh, that forum again, Dec., p. 22

AMERICAN WAREHOUSEMEN's ASSOCIATION
Warehouse productivity, Feb., p. 68

B

BARGE INDUSTRY
Waterways: caught in the currents of change, May, p. 62

BERG, JOE
Up on air freight, Feb., p. 62

BETZ, JOHN
Nothing a little business won't cure, Aug., p. 41

BOX Q
Break bulk containers, Jan., p. 27
Freight liability, claims, Feb., p. 23
F.O.B., shipping shock sensitive equipment, April, p. 79
Export Guide, freight claims, substitute service, May, p. 97
Bill of lading, Aug., p. 79
Legal questions, Oct., p. 14
Returned cargo tariff, Nov., p. 80

C

CCPAC
Stake your claim, Aug., p. 48

CSX Corp.
Staggers Act railroading: the 20th century unlimited, April, p. 31

CAMPBELL, GENE
Nothing a little business won't cure, Aug., p. 41

CAREERS
Tennessee detour: the road to success, May, p. 86
Distribution on careers, 1982, Nov., p. 67

CHARTERING
Import/export: case in point, Sept., p. 78

CLAIMS
Stake your claims, Aug., p. 48

COMPUTERS
Adventures in computerland, Jan., p. 43
Guide to computer systems, services, hardware & software, Feb., p. 39; March, p. 63; April, p. 50; May, p. 74; June, p. 67
How you can plug into URCS, March, p. 52
Distribution's movers clamor for computerized help, Aug., p. 36
Moving toward global electronic export system, Oct., p. 111
For people who hate computers, Dec., p. 29

CONSOLIDATED FREIGHTWAYS
Motor Carriage: A bright future, but only for big truckers, Jan., p. 48

CONSULTANTS
Those (damn/dear) consultants, part 1, Aug., p. 52; part 2, Sept., p. 46; part 3, Nov., p. 59

CUMMINS ENGINE CO.
How Cummins Engine revs up export control overseas, Oct., p. 128

D

DAMAGED DELIVERIES
Dec., p. 39

DER, W. JEROME
A well-taylored discussion, part 1, May, p. 43

DEREGULATION
What LTL shippers really want, June, p. 49

DIALOGUE
Subsidies: no more free lunch, Jan., p. 7

Trying to pinpoint a fact you know you read somewhere during the last year? Clip and save our subject index and you'll never have to give up on a lost fact which DISTRIBUTION magazine provided.

1982 EDITORIAL INDEX

Andy Rooney's '82 budget, Feb., p. 7
Your forecasts: a comeback or a ringtailed bitch of a year, March, p. 7
The legacy of Carter, Cannon and Kennedy, April, p. 7
Clearly, a weight and length law is important to you, May, p. 7
Win-win is in-in, June, p. 7
Don't give up the ship, Aug., p. 7
Can't get enough education, Sept., p. 7
Top management: what they want, Oct., p. 17
Discounts: a report from the front lines of the great trucking wars, Nov., p. 7
The job market, Dec., p. 7

DRAVO MECHLING
Waterways: caught in the currents of change, May, p. 62

E

EDITORIAL
1982: a tumultous year for distribution, Jan., p. 4
A call to action to support truck weight and length legislation, Feb., p. 4
Port users and port losers, March, p. 4
Maritime regulatory reform: what's in it for the shipper, April, p. 4
Secretary Lewis reconsidered, May, p. 4
TAA gets an 'A' for effort, but . . ., June, p. 4
Rail shipping on the right track, Aug., p. 4
Back to school, Sept., p. 4
Free traders vs. the flat earthers, Oct., p. 4
Kick off to labor unrest, Nov., p. 4
But for the grace of God . . ., Dec., p. 4

EDLER, JAMES H.
A well-taylored discussion, part 1, May, p. 43

EXPORTING
Import/export: case in point, Jan., p. 37; April, p. 60; Sept., p. 78
How to document exports properly, March, p. 45
Importing for exporters, Oct., p. 95
Moving toward global electronic export system, Oct., p. 111

F

FLYING TIGERS
Up on air freight, Feb., p. 62

FOREIGN TRADE ZONES
Secret agents of international logistics, Oct., p. 84
Importing for exporters, Oct., p. 95

FORWARDERS
Up on air freight, Feb., p. 62
Forwarder thinking, May, p. 34

FREIGHT TRAFFIC MARKETPLACES
Looking better to shippers & carriers, Dec., p. 55

G-H

GOBRECHT, HARRY D.
A well-taylored discussion, part 1, May, p. 43

GORTON BILL
What all eyes see in the Gorton Bill, April, p. 65

GROJEAN, TOM
Up on air freight, Feb., p. 62

I

ICC
A well-taylored discussion, part 1, May, p. 43; part 2, June, p. 42
Inland routing: the critical link in international trade, Aug., p. 58
Drew Lewis: a man with a plan, Sept., p. 30
Private carriage torn in 2, Sept., p. 54
Great trucking wars, Nov., p. 30
Negotiating with carriers—railroads, Nov., p. 40

IMPORTING
Secret agents of international logistics, Oct., p. 84
Inland routing: the critical link in international trade, Aug., p. 58
Import/export case in point, Jan., p. 37; April, p. 60; Sept., p. 78
Anatomy of an import, Oct., p. 74
Importing for exporters, Oct., p. 95

INGERSOLL-RAND CO., INC.
Ingersoll-Rand's European order processing and delivery system, Oct., p. 124

INTERMODALISM
Foggy outlook for U.S. Ports, March, p. 36
TOFC: ripe for the picking, Dec., p. 32

J-K-L

JOHNSON & JOHNSON PRODUCTS, INC.
They're stuck on transportation, Sept., p. 38

K-MART
Fire! What happened at K-Mart's giant warehouse, Sept., p. 60

KIMBERLY-CLARK CORP.
Toto satisfaction and your money back, Sept., p. 70

KREYLING, ED
Nothing a little business won't cure, Aug., p. 41

LAW
Who gets the discount, Jan., p. 14
Private cars take second place, Feb., p. 16
Discount payments revisited, March, p. 14
Okay for owner operators, April, p. 15
Use of owner operators blocked, May, p. 17
By the trip rates, June, p. 10
Hands off truck deregulation, Aug., p. 11
Less delay for truck rates?, Sept., p. 25
Opportunity costs, Oct., p. 40
Open door to 'toto,' Nov., p. 22
No recourse clause, Dec., p. 20

LEASING
Lease vs. rent, April, p. 72
A time to lease, Aug., p. 26

LEWIS, DREW
Drew Lewis: a man with a plan, Sept., p. 30

LOGISTICS
Worldwide logistics—the global link, Oct., p. 46
For National Semiconductor, offshore is on target, Oct., p. 55
A place in the sun for McNeil Pharmaceuticals, Oct., p. 64
The secret agents of international logistics, Oct., p. 84

M-N

McNEIL PHARMACEUTICALS
A place in the sun for McNeil Pharmaceuticals, Oct., p. 64

MAN OF THE YEAR
Transportation's modern-day Socrates, Jan., p. 31

MANAGEMENT
Tennessee detour: the road to success, May, p. 86
Reveille for distribution, June, p. 61

MARITIME
Watch out for tariff simplification, Jan., p. 22
What is an international ocean freight forwarder?, Feb., p. 20
Making regulations look easy, March, p. 10
Foggy outlook for U.S. Ports, March, p. 36
What to expect from shippers councils, April, p. 23
What all eyes see in the Gorton Bill, April, p. 65
Saudi Arabia: culture shock for ocean trade, May, p. 15
Waterways: caught in the currents of change, May, p. 62
Small exporters, slow—politics ahead, June, p. 15
Stand up and cheer, Aug., p. 21
My apologies to import managers, Sept., p. 16
Riding the conference wave, Oct., p. 6
Maritime bill sails through, Oct., p. 11
What was all the fuss about, Nov., p. 16
MARAD—a wealth of information, Dec., p. 11
Ocean carriers plot a new course, Dec., p. 51

MERWIN, FRANK
Transportation's modern-day Socrates, Jan., p. 31

MOTOR CARRIAGE
Motor Carriage: a bright future, but only for big truckers, Jan., p. 48
Formula rates: their time has come again, Jan., p. 54
They're stuck on transportation, Sept., p. 38
Toto satisfaction and your money back, Sept., p. 70
Negotiating with carriers: meeting motor carriers head-on, part 1, May, p. 54; part 2, June, p. 53
Great trucking wars, Nov., p. 30

NASSTRAC
What LTL shippers really want, June, p. 49

NASSTRAC AWARD
They're stuck on transportation, Sept., p. 38

NATIONAL SEMICONDUCTOR
For National Semiconductor, offshore is on target, Oct., p. 55

NEGOTIATION
Negotiating with carriers: meeting motor carriers head-on, part 1, May, p. 54; part 2, June, p. 53
Negotiating with carriers—railroads, Nov., p. 40

O

OSBORN, PRIME
Staggers Act railroading: the 20th century unlimited, April, p. 31

continued

P-Q

PERISHABLES
TOFC: ripe for the picking, Dec., p. 32

PORTON, OTTO
Ocean carriers plot a new course, Dec., p. 51

PRIVATE CARRIAGE
Private carriage torn in 2, Sept., p. 54
Toto satisfaction and your money back, Sept., p. 70

R

RAICH, JOHN
Nothing a little business won't cure, Aug., p. 41

RAIL
Kamikaze pricing and the vanishing rail routes, Jan., p. 18
Market dominance: nagging question of balance, Feb., p. 24
URCS works: but what's in it for you, Feb., p. 56
Car supply problem past for rail shippers, March, p. 18
How you can plug into URCS, March, p. 52
The Chessie as a wide-receiver, April, p. 28
Staggers Act railroading: the 20th century unlimited, April, p. 31
Unit-train rates for 1-car shippers, May, p. 31
Snakes loose in the intermodal garden of eden, Aug., p. 10
Are boxcars an endangered species?, Sept., p. 11
Drew Lewis: A man with a plan, Sept., p. 30
What the "mop-up" merger means, Oct., p. 27
Staggers: a jolly good fellow, Nov., p. 14
How good rail service is capturing Lakes container traffic, Dec., p. 25
TOFC: ripe for the picking, Dec., p. 32

RATES
Formula rates: their time has come again, Jan., p. 54
Great trucking wars, Nov., p. 30
Just a way to save a buck, Nov., p. 47

REGULATIONS
Rates to Canada, class rates, Jan., p. 78
ICC to issue guidelines on market dominance, DOT and hazardous goods, class rates, Feb., p. 31
NTSB faults DOT safety programs, March, p. 86

RODBERG, LARRY
Nothing a little business won't cure, Aug., p. 41

ROZYCKI, STANLEY A.
A well-taylored discussion, part 1, May, p. 43; part 2, June, p. 42

ROUTING
Inland routing: the critical link in international trade, Aug., p. 58

S

SCOTT, LARRY
Motor carriage: a bright future, but only for big truckers, Jan., p. 48

SECURITY
Are there holes in your security, June, p. 30

SHIPMAN, GEORGE
Nothing a little business won't cure, Aug., p. 41

SHIPPER OF THE YEAR
They're stuck on transportation, Sept., p. 38

SHIPPER/CARRIER RELATIONS
A turning point for transportation, Jan., p. 47
Motor carriage: a bright future but only for big truckers, Jan., p. 48
Nothing a little business won't cure, Aug., p. 41
Negotiating with carriers: meeting motor carriers head-on, part 1, May, p. 54; part 2, June, p. 53

SHIPPING
URCS works: but what's in it for you, Feb., p. 57
How you can plug into URCS, March, p. 52
Package express: too much of a good thing, March, p. 76
Staggers Act railroading: the 20th century unlimited, April, p. 31
Miracle miles at Xerox, April, p. 43
What all eyes see in the Gorton Bill, April, p. 65

AUTHORS INDEX

BABIN, A.F.
Inland routing: The critical link in international trade, Aug., p. 58

BARKS, JOE
Transportation's modern-day Socrates, Jan., p. 31
URCS works: But what's in it for you?, Feb., p. 57
Package Express: Too much of a good thing?, March, p. 76
Staggers Act Railroading: the 20th century unlimited, April, p. 31
Miracle miles at Xerox, April, p. 43
Forwarder thinking, May, p. 34
Tennessee Detour: The road to success, May, p. 86
What LTL shippers really want, June, p. 49
They're stuck on transportation, Sept., p. 38
TOTO satisfaction and your money back, Sept., p. 70
You can pay them now, or pay us never, Nov., p. 10
Just a way to save a buck, Nov., p. 47
Out of practice, Dec., p. 13

BARRETT, COLIN
Who gets the discount?, Jan., p. 14
Private cars take second place, Feb., p. 16
Discount payments revisited, March, p. 14
Okay for owner operators, April, p. 15
Use of owner operators blocked, May, p. 17
Negotiating with carriers, May, p. 54
By the trip rates, June, p. 10
Negotiating with carriers, June, p. 53
Hands off truck deregulation, Aug., p. 11
Less delay for truck rates, Sept., p. 25
Private carriage torn in 2, Sept., p. 54
Opportunity costs, Oct., p. 40
Open door to 'toto,' Nov., p. 22
No recourse clause, Dec., p. 20

BRAND, RICHARD
Distribution careers 1982, Nov., p. 67

COUDAL, EDGAR
Kamikaze pricing and the vanishing rail route, Jan., p. 18
Car supply problem past for rail shippers, March, p. 18
Unit-train rates for 1-car shippers, May, p. 31
Snakes loose in the intermodal garden of eden, Aug., p. 10
What the "mop-up" merger means to shippers . . . and a new underdog, Oct., p. 27
How good rail service is capturing Lakes container traffic, Dec., p. 25

DAVIS, DENIS
Warehouse productivity, Feb., p. 68
Are there holes in your security, June, p. 30
TOFC: ripe for picking, Dec., p. 32

DULANEY, TOM
Adventures in Computerland, Jan., p. 43
Guide to computer systems, services, hardware & software, Feb., p. 39; March, p. 63; April, p. 50; May, p. 74; June, p. 67
How to document exports properly, March, p. 45
How you can plug into URCS, March, p. 52
Lease vs. rent, April, p. 72
DISTRIBUTION's movers clamor for computerized help, Aug., p. 36
Moving toward global electronic export system, Oct., p. 111
For people who hate computers, Dec., p. 29

ENTWISLE, NANCY
Fire! What happened at K-Mart's giant warehouse, Sept., p. 60
A place in the sun for McNeil Pharmaceuticals, Oct., p. 64
Freight traffic marketplaces: looking better to shippers & carriers, Dec., p. 54

FOSTER, TOM
1982: A tumultous year for distribution, Jan., p. 4
A turning point for transportation, Jan., p. 47
A call to action to support truck weight & length legislation, Feb., p. 4
Up on air freight, Feb., p. 62
Port users and port losers, March, p. 4
Maritime regulatory reform: What's in it for the shipper?, April, p. 4
Staggers Act Railroading: The 20th century unlimited, April, p. 31
Secretary Lewis reconsidered, May, p. 4

Forwarder thinking, May, p. 34
A well-taylored discussion, part 1, May, p. 43; part 2, June, p. 42
Negotiating with carriers: meeting motor carriers head-on, part 1, May, p. 54; part 2, June, p. 53
What LTL shippers really want, June, p. 49
They're stuck on transportation, Sept., p. 38
Private carriage torn in 2, Sept., p. 54
Just a way to save a buck, Nov., p. 47

SHRANK, HARRY
Nothing a little business won't cure, Aug., p. 41

SMALL PACKAGES
Package express: too much of a good thing, March, p. 76

STAGGERS ACT
URCS works: but what's in it for you, Feb., p. 57
Staggers Act railroading: the 20th century unlimited, April, p. 31
Drew Lewis: a man with a plan, Sept., p. 30
Negotiating with carriers—railroads, Nov., p. 40

SUTTON, LES
Waterways: caught in the currents of change, May, p. 62

T-U-V

TAYLOR, REESE
A well-taylored discussion, part 1, May, p. 43; part 2, June, p. 42

TOFC/COFC
Negotiating with carriers—railroads, Nov., p. 40

TRANSPORTATION ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA
Freight Traffic Marketplaces: looking better to shippers & carriers, Dec., p. 55

TRUCKING
The battle joins at the ratemaking study commission, Jan., p. 16
How the good, not the bad, will guide ICC policy, Feb., p. 13
Toto satisfaction and your money back, Sept., p. 70
Unwelcome riders on the bus deregulation bill, March, p. 22
Trucking's ready to trade: more tax for bigger trucks, April, p. 19
Tragedy compounded by foolishness, May, p. 25
Time running out for motor carriers, June, p. 19
Carriers eyeing free market rates, Aug., p. 15
Cargo tanker safety record less than water-tight, Sept. p. 13
Shippers and carriers air views at Thurston forum, Sept., p. 13
Trucking moratorium is a borderline affair, Oct., p. 35
ICC closes eyes to flawed platform study, Nov., p. 25
Great trucking wars, Nov., p. 30
Highway users fees: the only path to better roads, Dec., p. 15

URCS (UNIFORM RAIL COSTING SYSTEM)
URCS works: but what's in it for you, Feb., p. 56
How you can plug into URCS, March, p. 52

VIDRICK, ROBERT
Nothing a little business won't cure, Aug., p. 41

W-X-Y

WAREHOUSING
Tek's AS/RS is just dandy, Jan., p. 65
Warehouse productivity, Feb., p. 68
Wow! A label printer did all that, computer and productivity, roofing woes, Feb., p. 74
Like a license plate: only better, a reduction plan, spray or roll-on insulation, March, p. 99
Not all forktrucks stop for lunch, April, p. 84
WERC, AWA offer computer views, June, p. 28
Much ado about public warehouses, Aug., p. 67
More ado about public warehousing, Sept., p. 91
"Lost" inventory is on the dock, Oct., p. 141
Fire! what happened at K-Mart's giant warehouse, Sept., p. 60
Attitudes: get one and save, squelching losses at the dock, Nov., p. 83

WASHINGTON
You can pay them now, or pay us never, Nov., p. 10
Out of practice, Dec., p. 13

WATKINS, HAYS
Staggers Act railroading: the 20th century unlimited, April, p. 31

XEROX
Miracle miles at Xerox, April, p. 43
Xerox talks computer talk, Oct., p. 118

YOUNGER, KEN
Nothing a little business won't cure, Aug., p. 41

TAA gets an 'A' for effort, but . . ., June, p. 4
Rail shipping on the right track, Aug., p. 4
Back to school, Sept., p. 4
Fire! What happened at K-Mart's giant warehouse, Sept., p. 60
Free traders versus the flat earthers, Oct., p. 4
Worldwide logistics, Oct., p. 47
Anatomy of an import, Oct., p. 74
Kick off to labor unrest, Nov., p. 4
Negotiating with carriers—railroads, Nov., p. 40
But for the grace of God . . ., Dec., p. 4

HEYDT, BRUCE
How to document exports-properly, March, p. 45
Reveille for distribution, June, p. 61
A time to lease?, Aug., p. 26
The secret agents of international logistics, Oct., p. 84
Great trucking wars, Nov., p. 30

HOLMBERG, ROGER
For national semiconductor, offshore is on target, Oct., p. 55

HURLBERT, LYNN
Import/Export case in point, Jan., p. 37
Import/Export case in point, April, p. 60
Import/Export case in point, Sept., p. 78

JESSEN, JESSE
Watch out for tariff simplification, Jan., p. 22
What is an international ocean freight forwarder?, Feb., p. 20
Making regulations look easy, March, p. 10
What to expect from shippers councils, April, p. 23
What all eyes see in the Gorton Bill, April, p. 65
Saudi Arabia: Culture shock for ocean trade, May, p. 15
Small exporters, slow-politics ahead, June, p. 15
Stand up and cheer, Aug., p. 21
My apologies to import managers!, Sept., p. 16
Anatomy of an import, Oct., p. 74
What was all the fuss about, Nov., p. 16
MARAD—a wealth of information, Dec., p. 11

JOYE, MARK C.
Importing for exporters, Oct., p. 95

LA LONDE, BERNARD J.
Distribution careers 1982, Nov., p. 67

MALKIN, RICHARD
Change and the customer, Feb., p. 10
Twilight zone for the CAB, April, p. 11
Return trip to total cost, May, p. 12
Memo to you, June, p. 23
Deregulation and reregulation, Aug., p. 18
New man at Pan Am, Oct., p. 20
Oh, that forum again, Dec., p. 22

MARIEN, EDWARD J.
Formula rates: Their time has come again, Jan., p. 54

STOCK, JAMES R.
Those (damn/dear) consultants, part 1, Aug., p. 52; part 2, Sept., p. 46; part 3, Nov., p. 59

STRICKLAND, JEAN
The battle joins at the Ratemaking Study Commission, Jan., p. 16
How the good, not the bad, will guide ICC policy, Feb., p. 13
Unwelcome riders on the Bus Deregulation Bill, March, p. 22
Trucking's ready to trade: More tax for bigger trucks, April, p. 19
Tragedy compounded by foolishness, May, p. 25
Time running out for motor carriers?, June, p. 19
Carriers eyeing free market rates, Aug., p. 15
Trucking moratorium is a borderline affair, Oct., p. 35
ICC closes eyes to flawed platform study, Nov., p. 25
Highway user fees; the only path to better roads, Dec., p. 15

ZINSZER, PAUL H.
Those (damn/dear) consultants, part 1, Aug., p. 52; part 2, Sept., p. 46; part 3, Nov., p. 59

■